Dolce Passione

Piemonte Brachetto Spumante d.o.c. "Bel Roseto"

The red sweet sparkling wine born in 2000. The roses scent and the lively foam call to the mind red fruits, desserts and cocktails as from a romantic landscape picture, very appreciated from women for its red ruby, brilliant and charming colour. Thanks to its fresh, bubbling and velvety tasting warm the hearts and the friendship meetings.

Name: Piemonte Brachetto Spumante.

Status: Vino a Denominazione di Origine Controllata.

Grape-Variety: Brachetto Rosso.

Method of Production: Red vinification, de-stemming of grapes, followed by cold maceration and fermentation on the skins at controlled temperature of 16° C for several days, crushing. The second fermentation happens at a controlled temperature of approx 16° C for 20 days. The formation of a light mousse in pressure tanks with the addition of selected yeasts to reach an excess pressure of 4 Atm is followed by stabilization and refrigeration at -4° C. Before bottling the wine undergoes microfiltration, and it is then left to refine in the bottle for several weeks.

Date of Bottling: Once a year in Winter.

Colour: Ruby-red with pinkish highlights, a bubbly and lively mousse and a fine-grained, persistent perlage.

Nose: Fragrant and aromatic, with clear raspberry, cherry and strawberry overtones.

Taste: Delicately sweet and fruity, without being nauseating on account of the high acid content that brings out its fragrance.

Best served with Pastries, light-coloured fruit and cream-based desserts, panettone, hazelnut cakes, particular cheeses such as Castelmagno. A very pleasant aperitif and thirst-quencher at any time of the day.

Minimum ageing: it should be drunk when young.

Serving temperature 5° - 6° C.

Bottles: 9.500 da 75 cl.

Storage: Store lying down somewhere cool, dark, quiet and well-ventilated.
